Confidential D.O. letter dated the 30th May 103 from the Dewan of Travancore, regarding the loan of th services of Mr. McAlpine, Professor of English, Centr College, Bangalore...

1) I met Mr. McAlpine yesterday and I gathered tha he was willing to accept the post subject to certain minor points about which he would be writing in a day or two.

DEWAN'S OFFICE 4 JUN 1930 No 1973

2) I had also seen Dr. Metcalfe on the 2nd instant and he told me that the English Department of the Central College was very weak and that he would be submitting proposals for its improvement, but that he would not stand in the way of Mr. McAlpine taking up the Travancore appointment if it is only for three years.

3) It is now necessary to consult the University officially. I shall also have the question what rates of pension and passage contribution will have to be paid by the Travancore Government examined by the Financial Secretary. Afterwards the question will have to be considered in Council and the orders of His Highnes obtained.

4) In the meantime, the Dewan of Travancore may, I think, be informed that the matter is being referred t the University and to Mr. McAlpine, and that Governmen do not anticipate any difficulty in sanctioning the loan of Mr. McAlpine's services for a period of three years as desired.

1. Contribution to local allowances and pension may be reckoned under the usual rules contained in art. 409 M.S.R. i.e. one fourth of Mr. Macklins substantive pay plus allowance which counts for pension.

2. Re passage contribution I agree to the Comptr's suggestion. 9/12 may be reckoned in 36 monthly instalments along with leave and pension contribution.

3. Re the request contained in Mr. Macklins letter of 25th June 30, I am afraid the conversion of the vacation deficiency service into that of the non vacation deficiency to enable him to take full pay passage leave is not possible.

33) Nor can any assurance be given now in regard to the alternative prayer for grant of passage leave during foreign service, as under art. 420 M.S.R. the difference between the vacation pay and the pay under which leave is taken is drawn by the Government servant. My Dear Sir Mirza

I have been getting reports from my men at Bangalore about the progress of the arrangements being made there for the accommodation of His Highness the Maharaja & party. I am very grateful to you for all the helps that you & your Officers are rendering me in the matter. As I wrote to you, I am depending entirely on you for the arrangements.

Mr Padmanabhan in a loan from you of the services of Mr McAlpine for the place of Treasurer of Dublin Corporation him - Can you spare him and if so will he accept the place? I should like to know also his terms. This matter is in quite a Confidential stage yet. On hearing from you I shall make the formal request to you first. If the present Treasurer's time has expired & his retirement has to be Gazetted, I should be very grateful if you can let me have a reply soon. I hope you will let me have the particulars -

His Highness & party are leaving this tomorrow and will reach Bangalore on the 23rd inst.

one of his letters reminded me of your note regarding the placing of our Water-Works Contract for pipes. The main pipes had already been ordered & for down by my predecessor. What remains is the Contract for the distribution pipes. As soon as I for your note I told the Water-Works Engineer about it & he has promised to bear it in mind when he submits his proposals regarding the distribution pipes. I shall certainly keep the matter in mind.

You may remember my mentioning the chance of my resigning

My dear Mr. Subramanya Iyer.

I am much obliged for your letter of April 19, and in reply enclose Mrs McAlpine's letter to me with reference to the enquiry I made to him on your behalf.

Mr. McAlpine draws as Professor of English in the Central College Rs.1000 +150 allowance. He is at present acting as Principal for the permanent incumbent who is away on 8 months' leave, and gets Rs.200 and a free house in addition. He calculates on getting Rs.1500 at least as his average salary three or four years hence. I do not think he would agree to anything less than Rs.1600/- a month, excluding of course, pension and other contributions to the Mysore Government. So would you kindly let me know (1) the period you want him for and (2) the salary you are prepared to pay him.

I thank you very much for what you say about the order for pipes. All I wish to tell you is that your State would not lose by placing the order with the Works; on the contrary, you would gain, for you would only pay us no higher price than you would to Bengal Iron Company and get superior pipes. Your Maharaja arrived yesterday morning and is comfortably lodged in a fine bungalow in the best locality. I do hope he will both enjoy and profit by his stay with us.

Yours sincerely,

Mirza M Ismail

V.S. Subramania Aiyar Esq., B.A., B.L.,
Dewan of Travancore, Trivandrum

34, South Parade,

Bangalore, 24th April 1930.

Dear Sir Mirza Ismail,

My husband is still in bed recovering from an attack of malaria. He is nearly better now, but is still very weak and unable to write letters himself.

Although my husband is very happy in his work here, he feels that financially he cannot refuse to consider the Travancore offer. His difficulty in suggesting terms is that the offer is sufficiently definite. My husband has still a minimum of twelve and a maximum of fourteen years service to put in, and it obviously makes all the difference in the world whether Travancore are looking for a more or less permanent Director of Public Instruction or whether they only want my husband for a matter of two to five years. As my husband's normal expectation in the way of salary during the last ten years of his service in Mysore is at least Rs.350/- per mensem greater than his present pay, any terms suggested to Travancore must take that fact into consideration, if the appointment is for any lengthy period.

This will, I think, make it clear that my husband can hardly suggest definite terms until he knows the exact period for which his services are desired.

When my husband last saw you you were good enough to mention his name in connection with the post of Tutor to young Prince Jaya. Before he comes to any definite decision regarding the Travancore offer, he would be glad to know, if it is at all possible, whether there is the slightest chance of the suggestion materialising.

Yours sincerely,

(Signed.) A. Muriel McAlpine.

My dear Sir Mirza,

I am so glad that the arrangements at Bangalore for the accommodation of our Maharaja were most satisfactory to His Highness. I know, that result was due to the personal interest and trouble you so kindly took in the matter and to the continuous attention that your officers and especially your Chief Secretary paid to the completion of the arrangements in the limited time available. We here are all very grateful to you for the great help.

I have written to Mr. Cater today formally requesting him to secure me the services of Mr.McAlpine of your Educational Service for the place of Director of Public Instruction (copy of the letter is enclosed). As suggested in your kind letter of 24th April, I am offering the place of Director of Public Instruction for three years on a salary of Rs.1,600, pension and passage contributions extra. The Colleges re-open on 23rd June 1930 and I should very much like to have the appointment made before then if you could kindly find time to arrange for it in the middle of the pre-occupations connected with the Birthday week etc.

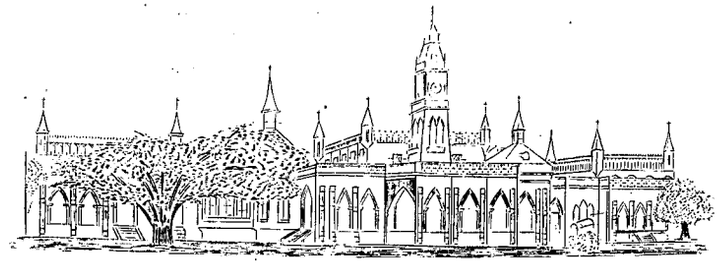
~~DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH~~

Dear Mr Ranga Rao,

I wired you, as soon as I got your letter, saying that I was willing to accept the Travancore offer. My reason for asking you not to issue any orders till you got this letter was as follows.

Just before Mr Matthan went to Negpore, I saw him & his brother Mr George (Chief Secretary to the Travancore Government) & had a long talk about the terms as set forth in your letter. I explained that while in the main they were satisfactory, there were small modifications & additions which I regarded as essential. At Mr George's suggestion I wrote at once privately to the Dewan of Travancore setting forth these additions, & explaining their importance from my point of view. Mr George thought that there would be no difficulty about any of them, but it will be the end of this week before I can expect to hear from the Dewan of Travancore. That is briefly the position at the moment.

As far as dates are concerned, the 23rd June is of course out of the question & I have told both the Dewan & Mr George so. I am not going to take my furniture south with me, but I cannot start making arrangements about selling or storing it till I get the terms of loan definitely settled. The Dewan understands that, as soon as I get the details fixed up & see an advance copy of his order appointing me, I shall make every effort to join duty at Trivandrum in the shortest possible time.



CENTRAL COLLEGE, BANGALORE.

~~DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH~~

In these circumstances would it be possible for you to write to the Dewan of Travancore stating that I have intimated to you my provisional acceptance of the post of D.P.I. in Travancore pending final settlement of certain details in the terms?

When you issue orders finally can they be in the form "The services of Mr McAlpine are lent etc - - - - etc with effect from the date of his handing over charge as Offg. Principal of the Central College"? I know exactly what packing up a house means, & it is probably impossible to lay down an exact date on which I will have over!

Yours sincerely
Edward C. McAlpine

P.S. How does the matter of my house allowance stand? I haven't had any authority to draw anything yet. Would you let me know what you return here, so as I can keep in touch with you? E.C.M.

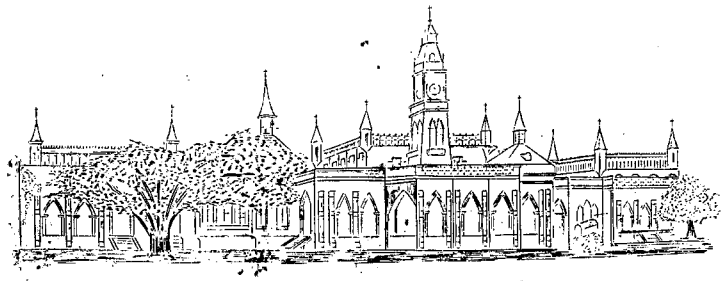
Dear Mr Ranga Rao, The modifications etc I have asked the Dewan of Travancore to agree to, are as follows (The numbers refer to the six points in the Travancore suggested terms)

1. no change
2. no change
3. read instead "A free house, furnished & fitted with electric light & fans
4. Add the following "except that in the matter of casual leave Mr McAlpine elects to come under the Travancore Service Regulations. Mr McAlpine will be granted casual leave according to the terms of Article 167(7) when attending meetings of any University, or doing any other work connected with a University."
5. Add the following "In all cases, however, where the journey is actually performed by road, Mr McAlpine will draw mileage at 8 as. a mile irrespective of the fact that a railway line covers part or all of the journey."
6. no change

Add the following

7. Mr McAlpine will be liable for income tax according to the Regulations in force in Travancore, but for no other taxes
8. Mr McAlpine will be entitled to the gratuitous attendance & advice of the medical officers of the Government.



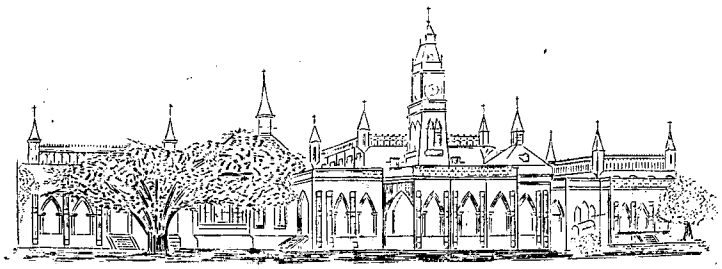
~~CENTRAL~~ COLLEGE, BANGALORE.

~~DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH~~

9. Mr McAlpine will be allowed to remit money for the support etc of his family in England on the same terms as the "family remittance" rules allow in Mysore.

10. My only other point was the question of T.A. on joining duty & again on reverting. I pointed out to the Dewan that neither Mysore nor Travancore Regulations seemed to me to make provision for the transport of gazetted officers for a distance of over 800 miles, with servants, household equipment & motor-car — especially where the journey involves not only changes of railway station, but also breaks in gauge. I cannot give you a definite proposal under this head, because in my private letter to the Dewan I merely discussed the question of my move at some length, & did not formulate a hard & fast offer. I gave him 2 or 3 tentative proposals, each of which differed upon certain circumstances. I am really waiting now for the Dewan to make an offer based on my remarks & suggestions. You might perhaps put it somewhat as follows to the Dewan.

"Mr McAlpine notes that the terms suggested make no provision for the T.A. to be paid on joining duty at Trivandrum & on reverting to Mysore Service at Bangalore. He will be glad to have terms set forth by the Travancore Durbar, based upon the tentative & alternative suggestions already privately communicated by him to the Dewan of Travancore".



~~CENTRAL COLLEGE~~, BANGALORE.

~~DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH~~

The only point on which, I think, you may want an explanation is my addition to no 4. The point briefly is this. Mysore allows 15 days C.L. a year, but a maximum absence at one time of 10 days: Travancore allows only 14 days a year, but a maximum absence of 15 days at a time. I would rather give up one day on the total, in order to get the longer break at ~~one~~ time eg Xmas holidays. As C.L. counts as duty, & not as leave, I presume Mysore are not really concerned in the matter, but I thought I might just explain the point.

I saw in yesterday's Madras Mail that the allowance of Travancore is effected in Bangalore in the first week in July. If that is true, he may prefer to settle things personally with me here. I might hear from him tomorrow, & shall let you know if I do.

Yours sincerely

Edward G. McAlpine

Dear Mr. Srinivasa Iyengar,

Your D.O. No.Fl 145 dated 18th June 1930 regarding the loan of Professor E.G. McAlpine's services to Travancore Government.

2. As mentioned in your letter, under Article 409, M.S.R., the -- contribution payable by the Foreign Government on account of Pension and Leave Allowances is ½ of the substantive pay under Government. But, I think, in the case of Officers included in Appendix I (Article 204 & 205) M.S.R. who enjoyed the benefit of special long leave rules, and are also entitled to the concession of 4 return passages during their entire service, sanctioned in G.O.No.4070-1/C.B. 68-10-4 dated 11th June 1928 the basis of the levy of contribution should be different. In this connection, I would invite your kind -- reference to Fundamental Rules 116 & 117 by which contribution is calculated on the pay drawn by the Officer in foreign service, which appears to be more appropriate. In fact, we are paying the Madras Government accordingly in the case of Mr. S.V. Venkateswara Iyer, Professor of Indian History in our University. Calculating on salary in foreign service will, however, increase our liability for payment of leave allowances and this point also will have to be considered in this connection.

3. As regards the proposed levy of contribution towards passage money of the officer, there is no rule existing to guide us and no precedents to follow. This officer has put in sixteen years of

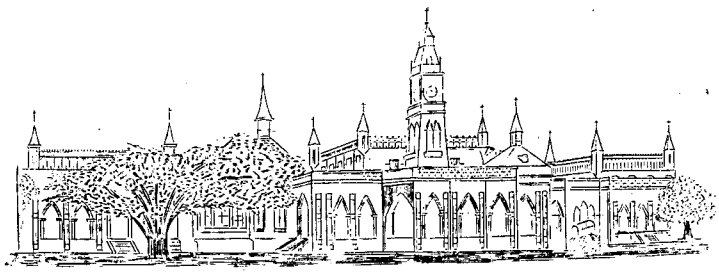
~~DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH~~

Dear Mr Ranga Rao, At the beating Club the other evening Mr Mathias mentioned something which he + I had previously discussed, + asked me to let you have a note about it. It concerns privilege leave while I am lent to Travancore.

Had I not been lent, it was my intention to take long leave home in the spring of 1932 — at least a year. When I wrote to the Dewan of Travancore mentioning the additional points I wanted included, I mentioned this fact. I told him that if I took on the post of D.P.I. in Travancore I should delay this long furlough till the expiry of the period of my loan i.e 1933, but that I should probably want to take a short dash home (3 or 4 months) in 1932 on urgent family affairs. As, according to the terms proposed, I come under M.S.Rs. for leave, I wish to put forward for Government's sympathetic consideration the following points concerning vacations + privilege leave.

If we assume that I shall go to Travancore very early in July, Article 186(a) M.S.Rs. operates very hardly in my case. The theory presumably is that I have enjoyed the vacation of 1930. In actual fact I have worked the whole of the holidays, + as Mr Sell drew the Principal's allowance for the vacation, I have not only done all the work for nothing, but I go Travancore without a day's privilege leave to my credit!



CENTRAL COLLEGE, BANGALORE.

~~DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH~~

My leave history since I came out from home in November 1928 makes my position even harder. When I was lent to the Residency from February 1929 to February 1930 I went, of course, to a non-vacation department, & promised Government that I would not thereby claim privilege leave under articles 183 & 185 in lieu of the vacation. The result is that in the last 19 months I have worked throughout two complete vacations, & have taken no leave of any other kind. When I made the above promise I could not foresee what was going to happen this year, & as a result I have not only worked right through six months' potential holidays in the shape of vacations, but in addition I go to Travancore without a day's privilege leave under the ordinary rules at my credit.

I therefore ask Government to grant me the following request viz.

"That from my return to duty in December 1928 till I am lent to the Travancore Government I may be treated as having been in a non-vacation, & permitted therefore to take with me to foreign service such privilege leave under the ordinary rules (i.e leave on full pay) as I have accumulated since 4th (?)

~~DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH~~

December 1928."

This leave with what I shall earn in Travancore will make it financially possible for me to do a short trip home in 1932 to see my wife & family. He latter go home early in 1931, & my wife will be at home with the family for roughly 3 years. If I cannot see them in 193 it means a seperation of 2½ years which isn't a very pleasant prospect

I should not like Government to think that I am trying to break my promise, but it must be obvious that unforeseeable events have made things very hard for me in this matter of leave, I therefore ask them to accede to my request.

In case the fact is not known to Government I wish to point out that for the Principal of the Central College the vacation (especially the latter half of it) is the busiest part of the year. Mr Metcalfe, who held the post for many years, will substantiate this.

When I talked this over with Mr Matthan I had another idea in mind — whether Government would allow me in 1932 to anticipate privilege leave. i e to take in 193 the 3 months which I should earn in my 3 years' loan in a non-vacation department. On reflection however I think there would most probably be audit objection to any such suggestion, & I therefore request as above. If a man, in a vacation department actually has worked throughout two consecutive vacations, as I have, government m legally treat him under articles 183–185, as I have suggested.

CENTRAL COLLEGE, BANGALORE.

~~DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH~~

If there is anything further about this which yo want to know before passing order please ring up College or drop me a chit, & I shall come in & see you.

I have still heard nothing from the Dewan of Travancore.
